all for One productions presents an original play commemorating Oscar's 62 years of fame!

Funny how you can live in Northeast Indiana all your life, hear about Churubusco's "Turtle Days" and never really know what it's about. Fort Wayne actor and playwright Michael Wilhelm decided to research Churubusco's most famous "citizens," an alleged giant turtle seen by a handful of men back in 1949. The result? TURTLE SOUP, a clever and hilarious retelling of the actual events of sixty years ago, when one man's determination to lose a legend changed his town—and his life—forever. Don't miss this world premiere about events in your own backyard!

Rated G for all audiences.

Welcome to this, the 62nd consecutive celebration of the hunt for "Oscar", the huge turtle that has become known far and wide as "The Beast of 'Busco".

The Churubusco Turtle Days Association Board, Inc., comprised of hard working and dedicated members, has put together a fun-filled festival for the entire family to enjoy. We thank you for your attendance and participation.

Proceeds from each and every festival are proudly donated to the Churubusco Town Park and for the betterment of our community.

We hope that you and your family enjoy your time with us at this year's event.

Sincerely,

2011 Turtle Days Board
